GREETINGS FROM RABBI WEINER

Pride, Prejudice and Possibility

*We all do it...*taking special pride in Jewish accomplishment and success, particularly in light of our challenged and tragic history. The comically terse summation of all Jewish holidays — "They tried to kill us, we overcame, let's eat" — is as apt as it is wry. The classic invocation of Nobel Prizes won disproportionate to our numbers is an iconic expression of the unlikelihood of our triumphs, let alone our very survival.

But often lost in this prideful defense mechanism are the values, and the traditions encompassing them, which empowered our ability to flourish. Nature, nurture and plain ol' mazel played lesser roles than the ideals and principles that sustained us through both unconscionable nightmares and the inertia toward obscurity that was the fate of most peoples and their shared stories.

As individuals and as a covenanted community, we embrace this High Holy Day season for its power to remind us of the defining Jewish values from which we've strayed in the past year — and those towards which we aspire in the year to come. And in these troubled times, when division, discord and demonization afflict our nation and our world in unprecedented ways, our responsibility, our duty as Jews to serve as a "light unto the nations," has never been more critical or necessary. I plan to share rabbinic messages during these holidays that will speak to the many ways in which our values, our attitudes and our actions as a people can bring comfort, guidance and inspiration to salve these troubled times.

It's not that these beliefs are morally superior, more righteous or more compelling than others. Rather, the proof of their power lies in the tests of time and the very existence of our people. We are here for no less a reason than that God shared these insights with us and through us, and we have lived by them—literally! We are obligated, even commanded, to heal the hurt of our world through our witness to this message, our willingness to share it, and our commitment to extend it beyond our community. Yet such a seemingly overwhelming task begins quite simply and silently—in the *heshbon nefesh...*the accounting of the soul within each one of us in this season. It all begins with you!

Wishing you and yours a Happy and Healthy High Holy Days Season,

Daniel A. Weiner Senior Rabbi

GREETINGS FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

We are looking forward to seeing you this year for High Holy Day services. As in past years, tickets are printed with your family's name and they are non-transferable. Our team has worked hard to take care of all of the behind-the-scenes details for High Holy Days this year. If there is any way that we may assist you or anything we can do to enhance your holiday experience, please let us know.

Here are some reminders to help speed entry into services:

- As always, we will have strict security in place, so please leave any large bags or backpacks at home or in your car.
- Each family has one ticket for both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. Please remember to bring it with you to services and have it ready at the door.
- We are expecting very large crowds this year. Please plan to arrive early. As was the case last year, there will be no guest tickets available for services in Bellevue for Rosh HaShanah day or Yom Kippur day.
- Parking will, as usual, be very tight. Please carpool if possible and do plan to arrive early.
- If you are not able to arrive before services begin, please wait at the doorway of the sanctuary so that our greeters may seat you.
- "Reserved" seats are for greeters and staff or others who may be needed in case of emergency.
- Please note that our sanctuary doors will open at 6:15 PM for evening services and 8:45 AM for morning services.
- We will be delighted to accept your High Holy Day campaign contributions as well as donations of non-perishable foods to the JFS Food Bank.

Again, please do not hesitate to contact me or my staff if we can help you in any way — not only at High Holy Days, but throughout the year.

All of us at Temple join in wishing you a happy, healthy and sweet New Year. L'shanah Tovah,

Lisa D. Horowitz Executive Director

REFLECTIONS ON THE THIRD YEAR WITH OUR NEW MACHZOR

Imagine a 21st Century Machzor that...

...inspires Reform Jews to participate in the multifaceted experience of the Yamim Nora'im;

...draws from the deep wellsprings of Jewish liturgy, history, thought, music, interpretation and creativity;

...guides worshippers, in accessible ways, through the journey of teshuvah and cheshbon hanefesh;

...values continuity and incorporates the outlook of the 21st century Reform Jewish community.

Mishkan HaNefesh features:

- Two-page spreads with faithful translations and relevant, creative English readings.
- Explanations and historical notes to deepen understandings of prayer.
- Offered as a two-volume set so each volume is easier to hold.

Mishkan HaNefesh will be familiar and comfortable to those who have used our Shabbat siddur, Mishkan T'filah.

TESHUVAH PREPARATION

"But Repentance, Prayer and Righteous Giving Temper Judgment's Severe Decree"

The process of teshuvah (repentance) is serious, lengthy and gradual. During this holiday period, we engage in the first two levels of teshuvah: awareness of our wrong-doing and voicing our vows to change. The third level, the most vital and the one upon which the first two depend, is the fulfillment of our vows when challenged.

During these Yamim Nora'im (Days of Awe), in addition to our communal and individual prayers, our feelings of fellowship and bonds to our history and destiny, we are challenged to actively and authentically confront ourselves, refine ourselves and renew ourselves. As an aid in embracing this task, please use this teshuvah worksheet to help focus your thoughts and spirit upon the sacred task at hand.

Teshuvah - Repentance

Relationships

 How am I part of the problem in the following relationships: my spouse/ significant other, my children, my parents, my siblings, my friends and my co-workers?

- How can I contribute to healing this relationship?
- How can I act on that contribution immediately? (Seek that person out. Ask for forgiveness. Forgive insults and slights against you.)

Care of the Body

- How did I treat my body this past year?
- What can I do to improve my health and condition?

Care of the Mind

- How did I enrich my knowledge and thinking?
- How did I increase my openness and tolerance?

Care of the Soul

- How did I care for/neglect my soul during this past year?
- What can I do to better care for my soul? (Read books, attend classes, provide reflective time.)

T'fillah - Prayer

- What is the quality of my prayer life? Do I pray merely for answers, or seek to cultivate a relationship with God and the divinity in others?
- What can I do to enrich the quality of my prayer life? (Attend worship more often, learn Hebrew, study the meaning and content of the prayers.)

Tzedakah - Righteous Giving

- How much of my economic resources have I given to worthy/needy pursuits? What more can I give?
- How much of my time and efforts have I given to worthy/needy pursuits?
  What more can I give?
- What have I done to better the condition of the world's oppressed and impoverished?
- Who can I lobby, contact or influence to foster tikkun olam through the public policy?

Ultimate Question - Confrontation

- When have I given up too easily, given in too quickly, and not made the most of my full, God-given potential in any pursuit?
- When have I rationalized when I should have realized?

Please embrace this worksheet honestly and genuinely. Let its answers speak to you from the heart of the self with the voice of God.

10Q: Reflect. React. Renew. "Life's biggest questions, answered by YOU."

10Q is a reinvention of the ancient ritual of reflection during the ten days surrounding the Jewish New Year. Go to www.

doyou10Q.com to sign up, and Reboot will send one question a day online over the 10 days between the holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. At the end of the 10 days, your answers to questions about life, future goals, relationships, ways you hope to impact the world around you, and more, are sent into a digital vault. Next year, just before Rosh Hashanah, answers are sent back to you and the process begins again. Over time, you will build an archive of your beliefs, values and experiences. Visit www.doyou10Q.com.

HIGH HOLY DAYS MUSIC

Our Temple family contains a wealth of vocal talents who will add to the musical experience of this festive and sacred time.

We are thrilled that Temple's own Cantorial Soloists Jacqueline (Kamm) Downey and Ruthie Lipshulch will lead us in prayer over the course of the High Holy Days. Jacqueline will have an expanded role leading both morning and evening services. Ruthie Lipshulch will assist in leading the Temple's talented Youth Ensemble as well as offer solos. Jacqueline and Ruthie are proud graduates of Temple De Hirsch Sinai's music and education programs. Our new Rabbi, Callie Schulman, will also be sharing her singing gifts, as will Temple's Adult Choir.

We are delighted to welcome back Cantorial Soloist Stephen Kalm and also welcome a new soloist, Annika Dybevik. A well-known opera performer, Stephen is the Dean of the School of Fine Arts at the University of Montana-Missoula where he also teaches voice and directs the school's opera theatre. Annika Dybevik is an up-and-coming opera singer. She is beginning her graduate studies this year and has a bright and promising future.

Our singing will be accompanied by Music Directors Valerie Shields and Carol Sams, as well as some of the city's finest instrumentalists.

Together, we will weave a festive musical celebration of Rosh Hashanah and a meaningful Yom Kippur. We invite you to add your voice throughout the Yamim Nora'im.

High Holy Day music and services are made possible by our members' generous contributions. Special thanks to the Freeman Kol Nidre Fund and the Goldfarb Music Fund for their enduring support of High Holy Days at Temple.

SERVICE ETIQUETTE

Temple's goal is to provide our members with meaningful and spiritually uplifting services. All our members can play a part in helping achieve this goal – particularly at the High Holy Days. To help our rabbis and staff create an optimal environment for prayer and reflection, we ask you to consider the following:

- If you need to leave the sanctuary during the service, please know that when you return, you will be asked to wait to enter if the ark is open or if the rabbi is giving a sermon.
- If you are in the Seattle or Bellevue foyer during services, please be mindful that voices carry (more than you might realize) and that conversations should be kept low and far away from the sanctuary doors.
- We welcome children worshipping with their families and ask all parents to monitor their child(ren)'s movements in the sanctuaries, and to keep children from running in the aisles or walking up and down the stairs. Children are not permitted in the balcony in Bellevue unless accompanied by a parent. Consider our programs for children of all ages in both buildings (see page 11).
- Please turn off your cellular phones, or switch them to their silent or vibrate mode, before services.
- Please be respectful of greeters' instructions. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and have a wonderful High Holy Day season.

FAMILY AND LITTLE WORSHIPPERS

Children are a vital part of the Temple De Hirsch Sinai community because they represent our growth and our future. Children are always invited to attend the main sanctuary service.

Consider also the options shown on page 11, which may allow you and your children to engage in the High Holy Days in a more meaningful way.

Please read through the selections carefully. Additionally, we would appreciate you supervising and monitoring your children at all times. Do not leave your children unattended in the lobby. (Our Bellevue sanctuary offers a cry room.)

*Parent/guardian must remain in building at all times. Adult non-member guests must purchase tickets for themselves if their children are participating in activities.

RSVP for the Kids Kehillah at https://tdhsed.wufoo.com/forms/tdhshigh-holiday-youth-programs-5778/. Register for Rosh Hashanah by 9/14, for Yom Kippur by 9/22.

SEATTLE PARKING OPTIONS

Seattle Campus: 1441 16th Avenue · Seattle, Washington 98122 (Please visit http://templedehirschsinai.org/about-us/directions/ for driving directions to our Seattle campus.)

Parking is at a premium in Capitol Hill. Even in the best case scenario, parking will be tight, so we strongly urge you to consider either carpooling or using alternative means of transportation (bus, taxi or ride-matching services like Lyft or Uber).

PARKING LOT OPTIONS: We have arranged for a few offsite parking options which are detailed below. Parking lot attendants will direct you to the available spaces at each location; please follow their directions respectfully.

Temple's 16th Avenue Lot - In order to accommodate the maximum number of cars, there will be "stacked parking." Note: if you park in that lot you will not be able to leave until the conclusion of services. Please follow parking attendants' instructions.

14th & Columbia Lot - Shuttles will be running between this lot and TDHS one hour prior to the beginning of services. Shuttles will return drivers to their vehicles starting immediately after services and continue for one hour. A covered waiting area will be set up as shuttles proceed to and from Temple.

Jewish Family Service Lot – Located at 1601 16th Avenue, a limited number of parking spaces will be available (no parking attendant nor shuttle on duty).

Seattle World School Lot - located at 17th Avenue & E Pike Street, a limited number of parking spaces will be available (no parking attendant nor shuttle on duty). Parking is available for evening services only.

DISABLED PERSON PARKING: Limited parking for people with disabilities will be available on both sides of 16th Avenue and in our gated lot on E Union Street, which will also have stacked parking. Vehicles must display valid placards or they will be towed. Please note: the area immediately in front of the sanctuary will be reserved for passenger loading/unloading as well as for emergency vehicles. 13

SEATTLE PARKING OPTIONS - CONTINUED

PARKING LOT OPTIONS: Temple's lot will have very few non-disabled-persons' spaces available, so please plan to park at one of these offsite locations:

Street Parking – available along SE 37th Street, just east of 156th Avenue SE, and on 156th SE as marked by city regulations

Crossroads Bible Church – located at 15815 SE 37th Street, just one and half blocks east from Temple; please park only in spaces directed by our parking attendants. Courtesy shuttles will run continuously to and from TDHS.

BELLEVUE PARKING OPTIONS - CONTINUED

COVERED WAITING AREAS: Temple sets up covered waiting areas in the offsite lots as shuttles proceed on their routes.

NO PARKING ON RESIDENTIAL STREETS: Congregants are prohibited from parking on residential streets located near the western border of our property. The city of Bellevue WILL vigorously patrol and enforce regulations.

ARRIVE EARLY: Please plan to arrive early, and do allow extra time to locate parking.

MITZVAH MENTIONS

Jewish Family Service Food Bank

Temple strives to be the largest single contributor to the JFS Food Drive. Please continue to help Temple De Hirsch Sinai assist others in need! We are again asking our members to fill paper bags with essential groceries to support the Jewish Family Service Food Bank. Please pick up your paper bag at either Temple location on Rosh Hashanah and return it on Yom Kippur. Donation drop-off points will be available at the entrances in both Seattle and Bellevue. Bags will be loaded into vans and delivered to JFS.

Items in greatest need:

canned food • tuna • peanut butter • pasta • rice • toiletries • cooking oil

Please, NO perishable items or Passover products; NO glass or easily crushable items.

You can also consider submitting checks payable to Jewish Family Service, or providing grocery store gift cards; donation boxes will be available in both campus lobbies. We appreciate your continuing support of our food drive. Thank you again for your act of tzedakah.

Monthly Volunteering Opportunities with Temple

With your help, Temple De Hirsch Sinai continues to be active and involved in our Seattle area community. Our volunteers transform Jewish values into meaningful action through numerous projects each month. At the beginning of the month, Temple members receive an e-mail with projects taking place at various times and locations throughout the greater Seattle area. Are you able to help? Simply respond to the e-mail! Commit to giving back more than you take from this world in 5778.

To learn more about volunteer opportunities at Temple and to get involved, visit templedehirschsinai.org/volunteer or contact Rabbi Aaron Meyer at ameyer@tdhs-nw.org. 15
