Safety & Security Awareness for Seniors

Jon Richeson, our local Protective Security Advisor with the Department of Homeland Security will help us understand protective measures we can take to best secure ourselves in this day and age. From receiving fraud alerts and learning the latest around scams targeting seniors, this talk will also delve in to best practices around active shooter response and cyber security. Knowledge is power and there is much to learn around this topic.

Thursday, June 8 • 10:30 - noon

Hidden for 500 Years, Crypto-Jews in the American Southwest

Jews who had converted to Catholicism in Inquisition Spain and Portugal hid their Jewish faith and found themselves with other adventurers in the 16th and 17th century Americas. Prof. Annette Fromm (Florida Int'l University) will shed light on what drove them to leave Judaism, what forces led them to the Americas where they lived as far from the Inquisition as possible, and how they are now seeking to return to their ancestral heritage.

Tuesday, June 13 • 10:30 - noon

Temple De Hirsch Sinai, Seattle Campus: 1441 16th Ave • Seattle, WA 98122

3 Feet Under: Digging Deep for the Geoduck Clam

We'll watch 3-Foot Under, an hour long documentary that explores how the geoduck has inspired a quirky yet devoted following in the Pacific Northwest. The star of the film is our very own Jack Boockey, a long-time Seattleite and member of the Endless Opportunities Steering Committee. He will guide us through the many layers of geoduck subculture: college mascots, songs, culinary delicacies, strict regulation, and the notorious Clamscam trials.

Thursday, June 22 • 10:30 - noon
