My Soul is Filled with Joy: A Holocaust Story, by Karen I. Treiger

Learn the harrowing tale of Sam and Esther Goldberg, who survived the Holocaust to ultimately settle in the United States. Their daughter-in-law, Karen Treiger, has just written and published a book about them. She'll share stories from the journey of discovery for their family, retracing steps from the Death Camp Treblinka to a pit in the Polish forest, to their liberation in 1944, and how they came to settle in the US.

Tuesday, November 6th, 2018 from 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Temple De Hirsch Sinai: 1511 East Pike Street, Seattle WA 98122

History in the Making: 2018 Midterm Election Results: Local, State, National

Pundits tell us the upcoming midterm elections are the most consequential in decades.

What do the results mean for the future direction of our country: locally, nationally and internationally? Dr. Christopher Parker, an award-winning author of two books on American politics and a professor of political science at the University of Washington; Lynne Iglitzin, former UW Professor of Political Science and Women Studies, and Maxima Patashnik, Director of Government & Community Relations, Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle, will offer their views on this landmark event. Sandy Kraus, Past President of National Council of Jewish Women, will moderate.

Tuesday, November 13th, 2018 from 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
